WE ARE REQUIRED BY LAW TO PROTECT MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

We are required by law to protect the privacy of medical information about you and that identifies you. We are also required to give you this Notice about our Privacy Practices, explaining our duties and your rights concerning your health information. We must follow the privacy practices described in this Notice while it is in effect. We reserve the right to make changes to our privacy practices and the terms of this Notice at any time, provided such changes are permitted by applicable law. We reserve the right to make changes in our privacy practices and the terms of our Notice effective for all health information that we maintain, including health information we created or received before we made the changes. Before we make a significant change in our privacy practices, we will change this Notice and make the new Notice available on request.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES

We use and disclose health information about you for treatment, payment, and healthcare operations.

Treatment: We may use or disclose your health information to a physician or other healthcare provider providing treatment to you.

Payment: We may use or disclose health information to obtain payment for services we provide to you.

Healthcare Operations: We may use and disclose your health information in connection with our healthcare operations. Healthcare operations include quality assessment and improvement activities, reviewing the competence or qualification of healthcare professionals, evaluating practitioner and provider performance, conducting training programs, accreditation, certification, licensing or credentialing activities.

Your Authorization: Unless you give us a written authorization, we cannot use or disclose your health information for any reason except those described in this Notice. In addition to our use of your health information for treatment, payment, or healthcare operation, you may give us written authorization to use your health information or to disclose it to anyone for any purpose. If you give us an authorization, you may revoke it in writing at any time. Your revocation will not affect any use or disclosures permitted by your authorization while it was in effect.

Disclosures to You, Your Family, or to Your Friends: We must disclose your health information to you in accordance with the Patient Rights section of this Notice. We may disclose your health information to a family member, friend, or other person to the extent necessary to help your healthcare or with payment for your healthcare, but only if you authorize us to do so.

Persons Involved in Your Care: We may use or disclose health information to notify, or assist others in notifying a family member, your personal representative or other person responsible for your care, of your location, your general condition, or death. If you are present, we will provide you with an opportunity to object to such disclosures of your health information prior to use or disclosure of that information.

In the event you become incapacitated or have a medical emergency, we will disclose your health information based on our professional judgment and experience to make decisions about your best interest in allowing a person to pick up filled prescriptions, medical supplies, x-rays, or other similar forms of health information.

Marketing Health Related Services: We will not use your health information for marketing communications without your written authorization.

Required by Law: We may use or disclose your health information when we are required to do so by law.
